

ARBEIT
MACHT FREI

1933-1945

1934-4: Private photographs of prisoners soon after their arrival.
 Private photographs of prisoners before their imprisonment

Fritz Grünbaum

Der Fotograf
 Fritz Grünbaum war ein bekannter Fotograf in Wien. Er wurde 1898 in Wien geboren und lebte dort bis zu seiner Deportation in das Konzentrationslager Dachau im Jahr 1938. In Dachau wurde er in der Baracke 3 interniert. Grünbaum war ein sehr aktiver Mann, der sich in der Lagergemeinschaft betätigte. Er war Mitglied der jüdischen Gemeinde und arbeitete als Fotograf für die Lagerverwaltung. Er wurde am 1. März 1945 von den Amerikanern befreit und starb am 1. März 1945 in New York City.

3

A unit of the U.S. Army Signal Corps under the command of George Stevens reached the liberated Dachau concentration camp on the evening of April 29, 1945. Their assignment was to accompany the American forces and to document the events.

13

April 29, 1945: Arrival of the American Forces

The American forces arrived at Dachau on the evening of April 29, 1945. The camp was found to be empty, with the prisoners having been evacuated to other camps. The American forces were assigned to document the events and to provide medical aid to the survivors.

April 29, 1945: Arrival of the American Forces

The American forces arrived at Dachau on the evening of April 29, 1945. The camp was found to be empty, with the prisoners having been evacuated to other camps. The American forces were assigned to document the events and to provide medical aid to the survivors.

April 29, 1945: Arrival of the American Forces

The American forces arrived at Dachau on the evening of April 29, 1945. The camp was found to be empty, with the prisoners having been evacuated to other camps. The American forces were assigned to document the events and to provide medical aid to the survivors.

April 29, 1945: Arrival of the American Forces

The American forces arrived at Dachau on the evening of April 29, 1945. The camp was found to be empty, with the prisoners having been evacuated to other camps. The American forces were assigned to document the events and to provide medical aid to the survivors.

קיינמאל מער
PLUS JAMAIS
NEVER AGAIN
NIE WIEDER
НИКОГДА БОЛЬШЕ

